Chambermaid Reports

First Chambermaid—Look! You let your pillow slip.
Second Chambermaid—No, the covenet it—Exchange.
His Means
"You are charged with vagrancy, prisoner at the bar."
"What's that, judge?"
"Vagrancy? Why you have no visible means of support."
"Huh! Head's mah wife judge, Mary, is you visible?"
Literary Accuracy
"You write of your hero as stealing home in the darkness," said the editor.
"Yes," replied the author.
"Well, you ought to know better than that. He couldn't steal home in the dark. If it was dark enough to be worth noticing the game would have been called."

A LINGERER

The Eldest Daughter—If Harry had lived in the old days he'd have made a good knight.
Her father—I don't know much about that—but it takes him a long time to say "good night" now.

EAGER TO WORK

Health Regained by Right Food.
The average healthy man or woman is usually eager to be busy at some useful task or employment.
But let dyspepsia or indigestion get hold of me, and all endeavor becomes a burden.
"A year ago, after recovering from an operation," writes a Michigan lady, "my stomach and nerves began to give me much trouble.
At times my appetite was voracious, but when indulged, indigestion followed. Other times I had no appetite whatever. The food I took did not nourish me and I grew weaker than ever.
I lost interest in everything and wanted to be alone. I had always had good nerves, but now the merest trifles would upset me and bring on a violent headache. Walking across the room was an effort and prescribed exercise was out of the question.
I had seen Grape-Nuts advertised, but did not believe what I read at the time. At last when it seemed as if I was literally starving, I began to eat Grape-Nuts.
I had not been able to work for a year, but now after two months on Grape-Nuts I am eager to be at work again. My stomach gives me no trouble now, my nerves are steady as ever, and interest in life and ambition have come back with the return to health." Read "The Road to Wellville," in pills.
"There's a Reason." Ever read the above letter? A new and genuine, true, and full of human interest.

MICHIGAN HAPPENINGS

Potoskey.—William L. Curtis has petitioned the council to rename Curtis park, which is the city park, as he believes there is ill feeling among the citizens in regard to the matter. A number of taxpayers have also offered a petition asking that the West Side park be named after him. The council has refused to act on the matter at present. Mr. Curtis is president of the First National bank.

Gladwin.—Mrs. C. H. Johnson of Hay township died from smallpox.
Bassett.—About 600 men were laid off from the month of the steel trust mines in Ironwood. It is said that after New Year's only men with families will be kept at work.

Grand Rapids.—James M. Crosby, broker and capitalist of this city, is a candidate for university regent to fill the unexpired term of Governor-elect Osborn.

Bay City.—Claiming that his seven-year-old son died from "lack of care and proper treatment" after he had been vaccinated, John A. Huskins has asked the council for "sufficient recompense."

Traverse City.—Harry Francis Campbell, a veteran druggist, died here, aged sixty. He was well known throughout the state as an expert chemist and was formerly a travelling salesman.

Muskegon.—Mrs. Ralph Pease, wife of the alleged slayer of Jacob Halper of Toledo, stated that she will go on the stand and testify concerning her relations with the dead man.

Ann Arbor.—The Michigan Daily, the student publication of the university, is waging a campaign for hospital privileges and medical attention for those students who are unable to pay the expense of such. The paper is proposing that a per capita of 50 cents or one dollar be levied on each student by the university and this submitted in an insurance fund.

Alpena.—Vincent J. Boyd was discharged from custody after evidence had been introduced showing that he did not fire the shot that killed George Coombs, a companion who was killed while hunting deer.

Saginaw.—Friends of J. B. Carse, a resident of this city, received a letter from him stating that he and his daughter were forced to flee for their lives from Jimenez, Mex. to El Paso, Tex., during the recent trouble in that country.

St. Joseph.—Judge Coolidge has issued an order to all county officers to suppress gambling in their respective districts, and to put all gambling devices out of business.

Washington.—Frederick M. Leau was appointed postmaster at Senter, Houghton county, vice T. M. Nichols.
Assigned.—John W. Hunter has been assigned rural carrier, route 4, at Brighton.

Vassar.—Leonard Rogner, the Rich-ville hotelkeeper, who was convicted of violating the local option law, and who afterward jumped his bail, returned home and was arrested while visiting with his wife and children.

Kalamazoo.—Testimony in the case of George Bolonahs, charged with slaying E. Stergioulas, showed that the latter was killed by being struck on the head by a 70-pound rock as he lay sleeping on the bank of Kalamazoo river several months ago. Robbery was the motive.

Owosso.—Frank Towers, nineteen, and James Whitaker, twenty-four, negroes, were arrested at Lansing by Deputy Sheriff Bert Griffin for two Durand store burglaries and for robbing a freight car in the Durand yards. Officers alleged the two men had the stolen goods on their persons when arrested. They are in the county jail.

Marshall.—Prosecutor Cavanaugh says John Anthony, once convicted of slaying Mrs. Jessie Burch of Battle Creek, will be freed, but will be immediately re-arrested on a charge of assault to kill. It is alleged he held up several Battle Creek women the night he was supposed to have shot Mrs. Burch. He has been identified by Mrs. Nellie Bassett, Mrs. Rita Seahon and Mrs. Inga Jacobson.

Traverse City.—Local potato buyers are excited in regard to the car situation, claiming that while other sections seem to be getting all the cars needed, hardly enough can be obtained for this station to do an ordinary amount of business. The car shortage, however, has had the effect of keeping up the Chicago prices and the bad condition of the roads has also hampered deliveries. The local market has been stationary at 25 cents for several weeks.

Holland.—Three children died from whooping cough and three others are sick of the same disease in the family of Louis D. Knoll. A triple funeral will be held. Mrs. Knoll is prostrated.

Saranac.—At a meeting of the representative citizens of Saranac a club was organized to push the village industrially. The organization will be known as the Saranac Boosters' club.
Saginaw.—C. H. Van Etten, president of the Michigan Blind People's association, has written to the state board of prison industries asking that the movement to restate the broom making industry in the state's prisons be opposed, on the grounds that the business of the state blind institution here would be destroyed.

Niles.—Charles O. Dumann, of Do-wagish, has started suit for $5,000 against the Michigan Central railroad and its detective, John Baumann.
Dumann alleges he was taken for a tramp while crossing the railroad's local viaduct and severely beaten.

Ann Arbor.—Announcement has been made that Miss Louise Toole, recently of this city, has been married to Prof. Saul Dawson Reid of the Anders (Col.) high school. Miss Toole was ill of consumption and went west in search of better health. She met Professor Reid, also a sufferer from tuberculosis. Both recovered and were wedded several months ago.

Saginaw.—The lumber men of the Saginaw valley will seek an adjustment of the demurrage rates which went in effect November 1. The shippers assert they are not given enough time to unload their cars.

ONLOOKER

The PARTING OF THE WAYS

(The "mother-in-law joke" has been barred from the theaters of an eastern, vaudeville circuit.) I have stood for three days, and being pelted in support shows: I have killed "me" simply killed "em!"
when I fell upon my nose.
I have laid "em out in Oshkosh, simply laid 'em out on a dead When my partner struck a hicklet with a "Woof!" right in my head—But when this fierce blow is struck against the temple of my art which has time has come for me an old old vaudeville to part.

Not a word, an act, a whimper when they hustled up my team.
By-a-cuttin' out the patter that would always make 'em scream.
Where I'd say, "I seen you walkin' with your sister yesterday." An' "Why, that was not my sister, twice a lady!" he would say.
Yes, I let 'em frost that gaglet—But I tell you, you are all art.
An' the time has come for me an' good
old vaudeville to part.

Why they've cut out stuff that landed forty years ago, an' more.
An' I never kicked or grumbled, never even acted sore;
When they said the soldier bottle an'
green whiskers had to go.
No one ever heard me holler, not a squeal come from me, beau!
But they've got too much distance when they tamper with my art.
An' the time has come for me an' good
old vaudeville to part.

One by one they've killed the wheezes that forever has made good—All the gags that all the lowbrows an'
the others loved.
Why remember how we held 'em simply held 'em to the spot When "What is your name?" he'd ask me, and I'd keep on sayin' "Wait!" I'm not much for them ideals, but I'm loyal to my art.
An' the time has come for me an' good
old vaudeville to part.

Crowded Out

"My fiancé is furious."
"And why?"
"The papers had to devote so much space to my troussseau that there was not room enough to give his name."

What They All Say

In one day she was told that she had:
(1) Beautiful hair.
(2) Lovely skin.
(3) A perfect figure.
(4) Shapely hands.
(5) Very small feet.
However, it is explained by the fact that she visited:
(1) The hairdresser.
(2) The beauty doctor.
(3) The modiste.
(4) The manicurist.
(5) The shoe store.

Money's Worth

"Your watch is away wrong," says the friend. "Why we compared time pieces half an hour ago, and already your watch has gained a full half hour over mine."
"That's all right," says the man with the businesslike face. "I forgot to wind it right before last, and it didn't run 'at all' yesterday, so today I've set it up to the fastest speed, so that it may catch up the day it has lost."

A Way Out

"I hear that Mr. Poppitt proposed to you thinking you were your twin sister."
"That's the excuse he made when I rejected him."

A Dodger

"I understand, Mr. Bingo," says the gentleman with the quizzical air and the optimistic smile, "that you are a man who is strongly opposed to the practice some people have of telling their troubles—that, in fact, you will almost run away from such folk."
"Well, yes," replies Mr. Bingo, edging off, "and I'm getting so that I dodge the man who is always telling how he never tells his troubles, too."

Too True

"She broke her engagement with Miggley."
"Why?"
"No. Quite the other way about.
He was so devoted to her that she said she never got a chance to flirt with any other man."

The Retort Courteous

"And you call this a portrait of me?" why, I could paint my face better than that myself."
"I cannot dispute you, madam. You have had so much more experience than I in painting your face."

Richard R. Nesbit

Tribute to Painter's Skill.
One of the still life paintings by Jan van Huysen in the museum at the Hague was recently injured, but it is believed—the perpetrator was neither vandal nor thief.
The picture represents a basket of fruit on which a number of insects have gathered. On a pale yellow apple, which is the centerpiece in the cluster of fruit, is a large fly, painted so true to nature, so say the officials of the gallery, that the canvas was injured by some one who endeavored to "smoo" it and brought his cane or hand too close to the canvas. "A tribute to the painter's genius," says the letter recording the fact, "for which the work had to suffer."

SAVED OLD LADY'S HAIR

"My mother used to have a very bad humor on her head which the doctors called an eczema, and for it had two different doctors. Her head was very sore and her hair nearly all fell out in spite of what they both did. One day her niece came in and they were speaking of how her hair was falling out and the doctors did it no good.
She says, 'Aunt, why don't you try Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment?' Mother did and they helped her—in six months—time the itching, burning and scaling of her head was over and her hair began to grow. Today she feels much in debt to Cuticura Soap and Ointment for the fine head of hair she has for an old lady of seventy-four."

"My own case was an eczema in my feet." As soon as the cold weather came my feet would itch and burn and then they would crack open and bleed.
Then I thought I would see to my mother's friends, Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment. I did for four or five winters, and now my feet are as smooth as any one's. Ellsworth Dunham, Hiram, Me., Sept. 30, 1909."

Russia's Growing Population.
This year's census of the Russian empire adds another five millions to the population as enumerated in 1908.
The czar's subjects now number 160, 000,000 and increase every year by 2,500,000 despite wars, epidemics and internal disturbances. As there is no lack of cultivated soil in Russia there seems no reason why this big annual increase should not continue.

Why Kick?
Louis Wlana, the Newark artist, wears a gloomy look on his usually cheerful face.
"It has just struck me," he said to Charles Strasse, "that my shoes don't cost me as much as my youngster's."
"Then what are you complaining about?" asked Strasse.

Experience is a safer and more useful guide than any principle, however accurate and scientific it may be.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup.
For children nothing so good as this.
It soothes the inflamed membrane, relieves the pain, cures wind colic, and is a balsam.

TWO OF A KIND

Dobbins—Is there a list of millionaires published?
Bronson—Not that I know of, but you can probably get a list of the fellows who dodge their taxes.

Why Do They?

Why women like the baldheaded man it is somewhat difficult to deduce.
It may be because he appears to be Thoughtful and kind.
Trustworthy and confident. Whimsical. Fast the follies and frivolities of youth.
Usually successful.
A man of property.
Opinions why women like the bald-headed man obtained by the Daily Mirror are as follows:
He is not silly like young men.
He accepts refusals of marriage so nicely that one is sorry one did not accept him.
The bald patch looks so clean and nice. One would like to kiss it.
A doctor welcomes baldness when it comes to him, as it is a sign of seriousness and dignified learning, which invariably increases his practice.

Famous "Pint of Cough Syrup" Receipt

No Better Remedy at Any Price.
Fully Guaranteed.

Make a plain syrup by mixing one pint of granulated sugar and one pint of warm water and stir for two minutes.
Put 3/4 ounce of pure Pinex (fifty cents worth) in a pint bottle, and fill it up with the Sugar Syrup. This gives you a family supply of the best cough syrup at a savings of $2. It never spoils. Make a teaspoonful every one, two or three times a day.

The effectiveness of this simple remedy is surprising. It seems to take hold immediately, will usually stop the most obstinate cough in 24 hours. It tones up the laded appetite and is just laxative enough to be helpful in a cough, and has a pleasing taste. Also excellent for bronchitis, asthma, throat, hoarseness, sore lungs and asthma, and an unequalled remedy for whooping cough.
For recipe for making cough remedy with Pinex and Sugar Syrup or strained honey—see Pinex—fifty cents in thousands of homes in the United States and Canada. The plan has been imitated, though never successfully. If you try it, use genuine, concentrated Pinex, which is the most valuable, concentrated, purest of Norway white pine extract, and is rich in gum and oil, the natural healing power of Pinex. Other preparations with not work in this recipe.
Guaranty of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with each bottle. Your druggist has Pinex or will get it for you. If not, send to The Pinex Co., 204 Main St., St. Wayne, Ind.

Germ in Her System

Every Woman Should Read this Advice and the Generous Offer that Goes With It.

The number of diseases peculiar to women is such that we believe this space would hardly contain a mere mention of their names, and it is a fact that most of these diseases are of a catarrhal nature. A woman cannot be well if there is a trace of catarrh in her system.

Some women think there is no help for them. We positively declare this to be a mistaken idea. We are so sure of this that we offer to supply medicine absolutely free of all cost in every instance where it fails to give satisfaction, or does not substantiate our claims. With this understanding, no woman should hesitate to put our claims to a test.

There is only one way to overcome catarrh. That way is through the blood. You may use all the snuffs, douches or like remedies for years without getting more than temporary relief at best. Catarrh in general is a diseased condition of the system, that shows locally most frequently in discharges from mucous membranes. Local treatment should be assisted by internal treatment for the general diseased condition if a complete cure is to be reached. That internal treatment should be scientifically devised and faithfully administered.

Rexall Muc-Tone is scientifically prepared from the prescription of an eminent physician who for thirty years made catarrh his specialty. This remedy is admirably adapted to the treatment of the catarrhal ailments of women. It purifies and enriches the blood, tends to stop mucous discharges, aids in removing impurities from the system, soothes, heals and strengthens the mucous tissues, and brings about a feeling of health and strength.

The girls will find many novel and practical suggestions which will be helpful in their daily life.

A Worthy Institution.

The Sisters of the Good Shepherd, whose convent is located on the corner of Valley and Walker avenues, are just now making a supreme effort to raise $2,400, the amount of their taxes on the improvement of Walker avenue and a sewer in Lincoln street. To the devoted Sisters, this monumental sum seems an absolute impossibility, but nevertheless with true heroism they have started out to do the impossible, and if tireless energy and persistent effort means anything, they will succeed.

The Sisters give much aid to the local courts by taking transient girls and abandoned women into their grand institution, take good care of them, teach them how to live good and useful lives and also teach them one of the many ways to earn a respectable living, and in fact build up new characters and send them out into the world remodeled specimens of real womanhood. And for all this they receive nothing from the city or county. Everyone to whom they apply for aid in this extremity should contribute liberally, as they made no religious distinction in those they receive and care for. —Ex.

Endless Chain.

What the great thinkers think to day the mass of thinkers will think to-morrow; and the day after the great army of non-thinkers will say that they always thought so.

The

Difference Between

Sealsht Oysters and Others

There is as much difference in oysters as there is between meat, fish, fruit or vegetables.

One difference between Sealsht Oysters and others, is the guaranteed purity of Sealsht. We are able to offer this guarantee because we know how Sealsht Oysters are handled.

Another difference is that in Sealsht Oysters you get the actual tempting, indescribable sea flavor.

Another difference is that Sealsht Oysters are sold from a clean refrigerator or Sealsht case. This is the first and only germ proof porcelain oyster display on the market.

There are a whole bundle of difference—in a word they can be summed up in this: Sealsht Oysters are incomparably pure, nutritious and delicious oysters—positively the best oysters taken from the best oyster beds.

A pint of Sealsht Oysters is enough for a whole family.

Find out what real oysters taste like!

Try Sealsht Oysters.

We sell them—and you can be sure of their purity.
